Proud Past... Promising Future

We live in tough times. We cannot afford business as usual. We need new leadership to create a pathway to the future, including:

- Economic Revitalization. For a local economy that is sustainable, with expanded use of new technology, environmental conservation, and creative partnerships.
- Improved Health and Well-Being. By developing much-needed hospital and clinical services, expanding wellness programs, and improving parks and recreation.
- Historic Tourism. Through historic restoration/preservation, expanded educational opportunities, and historic celebration events.
- Public/Private Partnerships. To develop investment capital and expand giving services for a new age of community-wide health, meaning and prosperity.
