Women's Seminar

Santa Fe, New Mexico, USA
La Posada de Santa Fe Resort & Spa
16-20 September 2007

Your Chairwomen Maribeth King and Chris Wofus invite female members and spouses, and their daughters and daughters-in-law, for a very intimate exploration of this wonderful city. Bring your cowboy hat and turquoise jewelry, and join us for a lively look at what "Santa Fe Style" is all about. Your adventure will introduce you to the "Tres Culturas" (three cultures) that make Santa Fe so special. Experience a blend of the Indian, cowboy and Colonial Spanish influences that will intertwine to give you a fascinating look at this artistic mecca.

Visit exquisite private homes with their eclectic art collections, experience the private vaults of the School of American Indian Research and tour the unusual Folk Art Museum on Museum Hill. Meet some of Santa Fe's most accomplished artists and wander through art studios and galleries that make Santa Fe the second largest art market in the United States.

Hands-on experiences include Santa Fe cooking, making essential oils at a spa, and spending an aromatic morning at a lavender farm. A day in the countryside, will take you to pueblos and art studios, to climb ancient ruins, and to bask in the beauty of the Ghost Ranch of Georgia O'Keefe. And, of course, you will revel in the music and delicious Santa Fe cuisine at a wonderful variety of special restaurants and exotic venues.

Come join us for the food, art, shopping, scenery and camaraderie ... and fall in love with the Santa Fe lifestyle. It will soothe your soul.

Condé Nast Traveler readers ranked Santa Fe the #2 city in the USA last year.

La Posada has been featured in Architectural Digest, National Geographic Traveler, Sunset Magazine and other noted publications.

Registration opens Tuesday, 7 November 2006.
